

Hurricane Helene Grant Assistance

+ Federal Emergency Management Agency (FEMA) Individual and Household Program (IHP):

This program provides financial assistance to eligible homeowners and renters who suffered damage or losses due to Hurricane Helene. It can cover temporary housing, home repairs, and replacement of essential items. To apply for FEMA assistance, visit or call 1-800-621-FEMA (3362).

<https://www.disasterassistance.gov/>

+ Small Business Administration (SBA) Disaster Loan Program:

Coverage: This program offers low-interest disaster loans to businesses, homeowners, and renters affected by Hurricane Helene. Loans can be used to repair property damage, replace inventory, and cover operating expenses. To apply for an SBA disaster loan, visit

<https://www.sba.gov/funding-programs/disaster-assistance/hurricane-helene> or call 1-800-659-1755.

+ North Carolina Emergency Management Agency (NCEMA) Recovery Resources:

NCEMA offers a variety of resources and assistance to individuals and communities affected by disasters. This may include information on grants, loans, and other recovery programs. Visit the NCEMA website for more information and resources:

<https://www.ncdps.gov/our-organization/emergency-management/hurricane-helene>

+ NC Department of Commerce: Disaster Recovery

The North Carolina Department of Commerce provides small businesses with guidance and support during disaster recovery. They may offer state-specific recovery grants, access to federal loans, and other financial assistance during emergencies. Monitor the NC Department of Commerce website for any announcements related to disaster recovery programs. Contact the Business Recovery Office for assistance navigating federal and state relief programs.

Website: NC Department of Commerce - Disaster Recovery

Phone: 919-814-4600

Note: The availability and specific details of these grant programs may change. It's recommended to contact the relevant agencies directly for the most up-to-date information and to determine your eligibility.